

image not found or type unknown

Anne Levins

Senior Vice President of Products and Analytics, Coventry

image not found or type unknown

Anne Levins is the senior vice president of products and analytics for Coventry. She leads a team responsible for identifying new product opportunities, assessing product performance, and helping develop long-term strategic plans for growth. Throughout her 25+ tenure in the workers' comp managed care industry Anne has held various positions in customer service, account management, product development and information management.

©2022 Enlyte Group, LLC.

mitchell | genex | coventry